The petitioner prays for concession of regular bail in terms of Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (hereinafter 'Cr.P.C') in a case registered vide FIR No. 233 dated 14.05.2013, under Sections 420, 406, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC at Police Station Palam Vihar.

The allegations against the petitioner are that he having been a witness to a fraudulent sale executed by some other persons who were the directors of the company.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is in custody since 21.05.2015 and the persons who had executed the sale have already been granted bail. Besides, investigation is complete and challan submitted.

These facts have not been controverted by learned counsel for the respondent on instructions from SI Bhram Parkash.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and noticing the aforesaid fact that the petitioner is in custody since 21.05.2015 and challan having been submitted as also the fact that the role of the petitioner is that of a witness to a sale deed which was executed by some other persons who have been granted the concession of bail and the fact that trial is likely to take some time, I deem it appropriate to accept the petition and direct the petitioner to be released on bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C.
