Date of Decision: July 21, 2015

Raj Kumar

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH

Present: Mr. G.C. Shahpuri, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Paramjeet Singh, J. (Oral)

Instant petition has been filed under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No. 88, dated 21.06.2015, under Sections 323, 452, 504, 506 of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Radaur, District Yamuna Nagar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner has also suffered injuries which are depicted in MLR of the petitioner (Annexure P/2).

I have considered the contention raised by learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the record.

There are serious allegations levelled against the petitioner to the effect that the complainant had placed sand outside of his house. The petitioner showed his ego and entered the house of the complainant and caused injuries to him. Once the petitioner is also admitting that the injuries have been caused to him then the occurrence is admitted. So far as the injuries on the person of the petitioner are concerned, they are bruises and some lacerated wounds. Possibility of same being self-suffered cannot be ruled out. These cannot be appreciated while deciding anticipatory bail.

In view of this, no ground for anticipatory bail is made out.

Dismissed.
