for the petitioner.

Mr. Anmol Malik, AAG, Haryana.

MAHESH GROVER, J.

This is a petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C for release of the petitioner on bail in terms thereof in a case registered vide FIR No.419 dated 29.6.2015 under Sections 306, 34 IPC at Police Station Samalkha, District Panipat.

The petitioner contends that he has nothing to do with the death of the deceased and that all the allegations are against one Satish with whom the deceased had invested money. Satish had become dishonest and refused to return the amount resulting in acutely stressful conditions for the deceased as he was facing problems at home and financial crunch as well. Learned counsel for the petitioner further contends that he has absolutely no role to play in instigating the deceased into taking his own life.

Learned counsel for the State, on the other hand, has read out the suicide note which implicates five persons including the petitioner and Satish.

If that is so, then I am of the view that at this stage to accept the plea of the petitioner of false implication would not be desirable as the petitioner has failed even remotely to suggest as to why the deceased has named him. At this stage of the proceedings it would be premature to accept the plea of innocence of the petitioner particularly when the suicide note indicates repeated humiliation and trouble created by Satish along with the present petitioner and other persons. There is thus no reason to grant the concession of pre-arrest bail to the petitioner.

Petition dismissed.
