

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(208)

CRM-M-23593-2015 (O&M)

Decided on: August 24, 2015.

Jaswant Singh

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Rajiv Joshi, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Jashan Preet Singh, AAG, Punjab.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks concession of regular bail in a case registered at the instance of Satish Sehgal alleging that petitioner along with two other persons had looted him at pistol point while he was traveling in his car. The petitioner appears to have been arrested in this case on the basis of confessional statement made by him while he was in custody in FIR No.149 dated 27.11.2014, under Section 382 IPC.

On the instructions from HC Prem Lal, it has been informed that next date of hearing before the trial Court is 02.09.2015.

Taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner has been in custody w.e.f. 27.11.2014 and complainant having not yet been examined; petitioner having been involved in the case on the basis of confessional statement, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the petition with a direction that trial Court shall make earnest endeavour to examine complainant Satish Sehgal within a period of two months after the next date of hearing. In case, complainant Satish Sehgal is not examined within said period, by the prosecution agency, the trial Court shall release the petitioner on bail on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court after 02.11.2015.

It is not out of place to observe here that counsel for the petitioner has stated at bar that the petitioner has been granted concession of bail in other two cases of similar nature, in which he was involved.

Nothing said in this order will prejudice the right of the petitioner to approach this Court again depending upon the circumstances.
