

205            IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM No. M-2360 of 2015
Date of Decision: 20.02.2015

Mirza

..... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.... Respondent

CORAM:        HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K.C. PURI.

Present:        Mr. K.S. Sodhi, Advocate for the petitioner.

                      Mr. K.D. Sachdeva, Addl. A.G., Punjab.

                      Mr. B.S. Aulakh, Advocate for the complainant.

K.C. PURI, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner-Mirza has applied for grant of regular bail in case FIR No. 162, dated 27.08.2014, under Sections 363, 366-A, 341, 376(i) and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Sadar, Jalandhar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that in the FIR itself, only presence of the petitioner has been mentioned. He has further contended that during enquiry, the petitioner was found innocent. He has also contended that prosecutrix and her mother in their statements under Section 161 Cr.P.C. have exonerated the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the complainant is also present and has filed the affidavit of mother of the prosecutrix in which she has exonerated the present petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that the petitioner is in custody since 27.08.2014.

The above said factual position has not been disputed by the learned State counsel.

Learned counsel for the complainant has also stated at the bar that he has no objection in allowing the bail application.

So, without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition stands accepted and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

Disposed of.
