On 14th September, 2015, learned counsel for the appellants put in appearance and reported about the death of Sham Lal – appellant No.2 and that Jogindero Devi – appellant No.1 was already on the record as legal representative.

Today, report on the summons has been examined and both Jogindero Devi and Sham Lal were reported to have died. Hence, in the absence of the appellants or their legal heirs, Lok Adalat cannot dispose of this appeal by compromise.

Appeal is ordered to be consigned to the record room to be revived on application of legal heirs of the appellants, if so advised.
