REKHA MITTAL, J.(ORAL)

The petitioner prays for grant of regular bail in FIR No.211 dated 21.08.2014 for offence under Sections 307, 323, 324, 341, 148, 149 of the Indian Penal Code (in short 'IPC').

Counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that role attributed to the present petitioner is giving a bat blow in chest of the victim and the said injury is simple in nature constituting offence under Section 323 IPC. The injured-victim has already been discharged from the hospital and on completion of investigation, the challan has been presented in the Court. It is further submitted that there is no other criminal case registered against the petitioner and he is ready to face proceedings in accordance with law.

Counsel for the State, on instructions from HC Didar Singh, Police Station Sadar Samana, has not disputed factual assertions.

Perusal of the order passed by the Additional Sessions Judge,

Patiala while declining the prayer of the petitioner for grant of bail would reveal that the Court has not appreciated the matter with clarity. However, in view of the above, without commenting upon merits of the case, bail to the petitioner to the satisfaction of trial Court/ Illaqa Magistrate. However, he shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) he shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer; and
- (ii) he shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.
