2. To be referred to the Reporters or not ?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest ?

Ajay Tewari, J (Oral)

The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.295, dated 11.8.2014, registered under Sections 406, 420, 506, 120-B of the IPC, at Police Station Pehowa, District Kurukshetra.

On 20.8.2015 the following contention was noticed :-

“ Learned counsel states that apart from the merits of the case the petitioner has paid the entire amount i.e ₹ 5 lacs which he had received from the complainant and the complainant has issued an affidavit stating that now he has no dispute with the petitioner and would have no objection if the concession of anticipatory bail is granted to him.”

Learned DAG Haryana, on instructions from ASI Harbans Lal, states that the petitioner has made the payment to the complainant.

In these circumstances, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Resultantly, this petition is allowed and it is directed that in the event of his arrest, the petitioner shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Investigating Officer to his satisfaction subject to the compliance of the provisions as contained in Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
