---Respondent

Coram: Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Rekha Mittal

Present: Ms. Sarla Chaudhary, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr.Rajesh Gaur, Addl. A.G.Haryana
for the respondent-State

1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporter or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

REKHA MITTAL, J.

The petitioner prays for grant of interim bail pending trial pertaining to FIR No. 174 dated 18.6.2005 for offence punishable under Sections 303, 323, 148, 149 of the Indian Penal Code registered at Police Station, Bilaspur, District Gurgaon.

Counsel for the petitioner contends that son of brother of the petitioner passed away on 1.11.2014 as he met with an accident. His minor son sustained injuries as he has fallen down in the house on 7.11.2014. The petitioner was earlier allowed interim bail by this Court on 23.5.2014 for a period of two weeks and the petitioner never misused concession of bail. It is prayed that the petitioner may be allowed interim bail for a period of two weeks.

Counsel for the State of Haryana has opposed the prayer with the submissions that the petitioner stayed away from judicial process for a period of about 07 years and he was declared as a proclaimed offender in the proceedings which ultimately culminated in conviction of co-accused by the trial court.

I have heard counsel for the parties and perused the records.

There is no document appended with the petition in regard to nature of injuries sustained by son of the petitioner and nephew of the petitioner died on 1.11.2014. There is no justifiable grounds to allow interim bail to the petitioner and accordingly the petition is dismissed.
