CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ MOHAN SINGH

Present: Mr.R.S.Bajaj , Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr.Varun Sharma, AAG, Punjab.

Mr.Vivek Thakur, Advocate, for the complainant.

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J.

Petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in case bearing FIR No. 11 dated 26.7.2013 registered under Sections 406/ 498-A IPC at P.S. NRI P.S., District Kapurthala.

Learned State counsel, on instructions from Sub Inspector Shovanjit Singh, states that challan has already been presented and the petitioner is not required for any further investigation. However, learned counsel for the complainant opposes the petition on the ground that order dated 9.9.2014 has not been complied with.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that soon after the marriage, complainant went to Belgium. The matter was once referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court but could not be settled. On one point of time, some consensus had reached between the parties, wherein, it was shown that despite failure of mediation between the parties, it was acceptable to the complainant in case petitioner joins her in Belgium. Petitioner accepted the proposal at that time and in pursuance thereof, he handed over the necessary documents viz. passport and other documents to the complainant but no headway was made thereafter.

Without adverting to anything factual between the parties, since challan has already been presented and the petitioner has already submitted bail bonds to the trial Court, therefore, order dated 27.8.2013 is made absolute.
