| 3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest? | Yes |

Present:- Mr. B.D.Sharma, Advocate, for petitioner.

Mr. Arshdeep Kler, DAG, Punjab.

SHEKHER DHAWAN, J (Oral)

The petitioner has applied for regular bail under Section 439 Cr.P.C. who is facing allegations that he had committed rape upon prosecutrix after abducting.

Custody certificate of petitioner filed, same is taken on record and as per custody certificate petitioner is in custody from last 8 months and 29 days.

Complainant Paramjit Masih had reported the matter to police. The age of his daughter was 17 years and she was kidnapped from his residence.

Learned counsel for the petitioner mainly took the plea that prosecution case is false. Remaining three co-accused have been released on bail. Trial of case shall take some more time. Therefore, the petitioner be released on bail.

Learned State counsel opposed the bail application on the ground that the allegations are regarding kidnapping and rape of minor girl. So the bail application be dismissed.

Having considered the matter in its entirety that petitioner is the main accused who is facing allegations of kidnapping of minor girl and committing rape upon her. The petitioner does not deserve concession of regular bail.

Petition being without any merit, stands dismissed.
