CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ANITA CHAUDHRY

Mr. V.P.S. Sidhu, AAG, Punjab.

The petitioner is seeking anticipatory bail in FIR No. 112 dated 31.10.2014 registered under Sections 376/506 IPC, Police Station Khuian Sarwar, Tehsil Abohar, District Fazilka.

Power of attorney on behalf of complainant has been filed.

The counsel for the petitioner contends that the FIR had been registered on account of some misunderstanding between the families which has now been removed and the prosecutrix has given an affidavit that statement was given by the father due to misunderstanding and they have approached the Court for quashing of the FIR but the case was subsequently withdrawn.

The counsel appearing for the complainant supports the petitioner.

The State counsel has opposed the petition and has urged that it is a serious issue and the FSL report has also been received and there is an evidence that the girl had been raped.

Allegations of rape were levelled by the prosecutrix on her uncle. The girl was medically examined. The FSL report has also been received which is against the accused. The hymen was found torn. The girl was unmarried at that point. No case for anticipatory bail is made out.

The petition is dismissed.
