

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

(209)

CRM-M-25917-2015

Decided on: September 21, 2015

Suman and others

....Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S.BEDI

Present: Mr. Naresh Jain, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. C.S. Bakshi, Addl. A.G., Haryana.

Mr. Aditya Sanghi, Advocate, for the complainant.

M.M.S.BEDI,J (ORAL)

The petitioners were found innocent in a case registered on the complaint of Hans Raj alleging that his daughter Anita having been tortured by her husband Rajpal, had committed suicide along with her minor children.

So far as husband of the deceased is concerned, he is in custody.

Petitioners having been summoned as additional accused under 319 Cr.P.C, have already put in appearance before the trial Court, pursuant to the interim order passed by this Court. Petitioners No. 1 and 2 are sister-in-law and mother-in-law of the deceased whereas petitioner No.3 is brother-in-law. It is apparent that they did not misuse their liberty to tamper with the evidence after they were found innocent. They having already put in appearance before the trial Court, pursuant to the interim order, a dual version having already cropped up qua them, they can be granted the concession of pre-arrest bail.

Petition is allowed. It is ordered that the petitioners will remain on bail during pendency of the trial against the bail bonds already furnished by them pursuant to the interim order, subject to the conditions that the petitioners will continue to appear before the trial Court and will not absent without any sufficient cause and will not make any attempt to tamper with the evidence or delay the proceedings in any manner.
