

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M No.27016 of 2015

Date of Decision: 16.09.2015

Jasbir @ Jassi

..... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana and another

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present: Mr. R.S.Mamli, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Rajiv Doon, Assistant Advocate General, Haryana for respondent No.1/State along with ASI Labh Singh.

Mr. Virender Singh, Advocate for respondent No.2/complainant.

JASWANT SINGH, J. (Oral)

Present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is for quashing FIR No.273 dated 08.11.2014, under Sections 324, 506 and 307, IPC (added subsequently), registered with Police Station Bilaspur, District Yamunanagar (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 10.08.2015 (Annexure P-3) arrived at between the parties.

As per the allegations, the petitioner inflicted sword blow on the abdomen of the complainant and thus causing injury to the intestines, which were opined to be dangerous to life.

Vide order dated 14.08.2015, this Court directed the learned Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court to send report with regard to compromise in pursuance of which, a report/letter No.248 dated 25.08.2015 has been received from the learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Bilaspur (Yamuna Nagar), which is taken on record as Mark-A. It is stated in the report that the complainant-Maya Ram has arrived at a compromise with the accused-petitioner without any undue influence and pressure.

Learned Counsel for respondent No.2/complainant states that he has no objection if the aforesaid FIR be quashed.

Learned State Counsel, on instructions from ASI Labh Singh, states that the entire evidence is over and the case is fixed for arguments on 22.09.2015. He further states that for consuming the resources of the State and the time of the Court, some costs be imposed upon the petitioner/accused.

In response, learned Counsel for the petitioner/accused has very graciously conceded to deposit ₹10,000/- as costs to the District Legal Services Authority, Yamuna Nagar.

Hon'ble Supreme Court in (2003) 4 SCC 675, B.S Joshi & Others Vs. State of Haryana & Another has made it explicitly clear in para 15 of its judgment that the High Court in exercise of its inherent powers can quash criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint and Section 320 of the Code does not limit or effect the powers under Section 482 of the Code.

A Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 has held that this Court, in appropriate cases, while exercising powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., may quash an FIR disclosing the commission of non compoundable offences. The relevant extracts read as under:-

“ The only inevitable conclusion from the above discussion is that there is no statutory bar under the Cr.P.C., which can affect the inherent power of this Court under Section 482. Further, the same cannot be limited to matrimonial cases alone and the Court has the wide power to quash the proceedings even in non-compoundable offences notwithstanding the bar under Section 320 of the Cr.P.C., in order to prevent the abuse of law and to secure the ends of justice. ”

Hon'ble Apex Court in another case in J.T 2008(9) S.C 192, Nikhil Merchant Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation & Another while relying upon its decision in B.S. Joshi's case (supra) has also held that in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties, the technicalities should not be allowed to stand in the way in the quashing of criminal proceedings and the continuance of the same after compromise between the parties would be a futile exercise.

Similar views were expressed by Hon'ble the Apex Court in Madan Mohan Abot v. State of Punjab, 2008(4) SCC 582, the relevant extract of which is as under:-

“We need to emphasise that it is perhaps advisable that in disputes where the question involved is of a purely personal nature, the court should ordinarily accept the terms of the compromise even in criminal proceedings as keeping the matter alive with no possibility of a result in favour of the prosecution is a luxury which the courts, grossly overburdened as they are, cannot afford and that the time so saved can be utilised in deciding more effective and meaningful litigation. This is a common sense approach to the matter based on ground of realities and bereft of the technicalities of the law.”

Keeping in view the above settled legal position and taking into account the fact that both the parties have desired to live in peace and harmony and carry on with their lives without any ill will or rancour by resolving their differences and entering into the aforesaid compromise, it is evident that it is a fit case where there is no impediment in the way of the Court to exercise its inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., for quashing of the FIR in the interest of justice.

Accordingly, the present petition is allowed and FIR No.273 dated 08.11.2014, under Sections 324, 506 and 307, IPC (added subsequently), registered with Police Station Bilaspur, District Yamunanagar (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are quashed subject to payment of ₹10,000/- as costs to the District Legal Services Authority, Yamuna Nagar within 15 days from today. Otherwise, this petition shall be deemed to be dismissed.
