Date of Decision: September 09, 2015.

Sangita Rani

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SABINA

Present: Mr. Prashant Vashisth, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. R.P.S. Sidhu, AAG Punjab.

Mr. Lovkesh, Advocate for the complainant.

SABINA, J.

Petitioner has filed this petition under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 seeking regular bail in FIR No.142 dated 21.11.2013, under Sections 306/ 34 of Indian Penal Code, 1860, registered at Police Station GRP, Jalandhar.

Prosecution story, in brief, is that the petitioner got married to Sumit and out of the said wedlock, they were blessed with a son. Petitioner and Sumit were residing separately. However, Sumit was being harassed by his in-laws family and was not allowed to meet the child and due to this reason, he committed suicide.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is in custody since 25.05.2015. Challan has already been presented in the Court and petitioner was not required for further investigation. Conclusion of trial may take time.

Learned State counsel who is assisted by the counsel for the complainant, on the other hand has opposed the petition.

In the present case, admittedly, petitioner and the deceased were residing separately. Petitioner is in custody since 25.05.2015.

Keeping in view the fact that the challan has already been presented in the Court and conclusion of trial may take time, it would be just and expedient to order the release of the petitioner on bail.

Accordingly, without expressing any opinion on merits on the case, this petition is allowed. Petitioner be admitted to bail, subject to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jalandhar.
