IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-27568 of 2015

Date of decision: August 19, 2015

Satpal

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SABINA

Present: Mr. Jai Bhagwan, Advocate for the petitioner.

SABINA, J

Petitioner has filed this petition under Section 438 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 seeking anticipatory bail in FIR No.135 dated 13.07.2015, under Sections 458, 354, 354-B, 323, 506, 148, 149, 498-A of Indian Penal Code, 1860, registered at Police Station Civil Lines Patiala, District Patiala.

Prosecution story in brief is that the petitioner and his co-accused had entered the parental house of the complainant. Petitioner was allegedly armed with a Hockey and had given a blow with it on the person of the brother of the complainant. The other accused also inflicted injuries on the person of the complainant party.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has been falsely involved in this case due to matrimonial discord between the complainant and her in-laws family. Petitioner had merely been engaged as a driver by the husband of the complainant when he visited his sister's house and thereafter, his in-laws house on the day of occurrence.

In the present case, allegations levelled against the petitioner are serious in nature. Petitioner is specifically named in the FIR and as per the prosecution case, petitioner was armed with a Hockey at the time of occurrence and had inflicted injury on the person of the brother of the complainant. Petitioner might be required for custodial interrogation.

Hence, no ground for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, is made out.

Dismissed.
