M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

Criminal proceedings were initiated against the petitioner and her husband under Section 182 IPC on the basis of a calandra on the recommendation of SSP, Tarn Taran. The petitioner was acquitted giving benefit of doubt. Claiming that the petitioner is a member of scheduled caste and false, malicious and vexatious criminal proceedings had been instituted as such an offence under Section 3 (viii) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, for short 'the Act', has allegedly been committed by Kulraj Singh and others. The petitioner has filed an application for registration of a case under Section 3

(viii) of the Act against Kulraj Singh and others. Through instant petition a direction has been sought for registration of a case on the basis of said application annexure P-2.

Without expression of any opinion whether any cognizable offence has been committed by said Kulraj Singh and others or whether the disposal of proceedings under Section 182 IPC would fall within the ambit of provisions of Section 3 (viii) of the Act, I am of the opinion that annexure P-2 could have been looked into.

Notice of motion to Advocate General, Punjab.

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Jashanpreet Singh, AAG, Punjab, accepts notice. Copy given.

This petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondents that annexure P-2 will be looked into and would be disposed of within a period of three months after the receipt of a certified copy of the order.
