LISA GILL, J.

The present petition has been filed by the petitioners for protection of their life and liberty as they apprehend danger at the hands of respondents No.4 to 6 and other relatives because they are stated to have contracted marriage between themselves on 24.01.2015 against the wishes of the said respondents. Both the petitioners are present in Court and on being asked submit that they have contracted marriage between themselves out of their free will and volition.

It is contended that the petitioners are major, their dates of birth being 10.08.1992 and 04.09.1989, respectively. True copies of Secondary Examination certificate of petitioner No.1 and Middle Standard Examination certificate of petitioner No.2 have been appended with the petition as Annexures P1 and P2. Photographs of the marriage are also placed on record as Annexures P3. The petitioners are stated to have submitted a representation dated 24.01.2015 (Annexure P4) to respondent No.2 i.e., the Commissioner of Police, Gurgaon for redressal of their grievance.

Notice of motion to the Advocate General, Haryana.

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Nishchal Mann, Deputy Advocate General, Haryana who is present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of respondents No.1 to 3. Two copies of the petition have been handed over to learned State counsel.

Without commenting upon the age of the petitioners or the validity of their marriage or the validity and genuineness of the certificates appended with the petition, respondent No.2 – Commissioner of Police, Gurgaon is directed to decide the representation dated 24.01.2015 submitted by the petitioners and take appropriate action keeping in view the threat perception to the petitioners.

It is, however, made clear that this order shall have no effect on the validity of the alleged marriage of the petitioners and neither will any other civil or criminal proceedings initiated against the petitioners be barred due to this order.
