RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J.

The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.107 dated 08.11.2014 registered under Sections 420, 406 and 34 of the IPC at Police Station Sadar Sangrur.

On 29.01.2015 this Court passed the following order:-

"The learned counsel contends that the petitioner has sufficient property to discharge his liability but on account of the slump in the market, there is no ready buyer. However, irrespective of that, the petitioner undertakes to repay the entire amount of Rs.66.00 lacs, including the share of his partner, Satvir Kumar, within two months from today.

Notice of motion for 02.03.2015.

At the asking of the Court, Ms. Harsimrat Rai, DAG, Punjab, accepts notice. A complete copy of the paper book has been handed over to the learned State counsel, in the Court.

Meanwhile, in the event of arrest of the petitioner by the Arresting Officer, he shall be released on interim bail subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. That he shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;*
- 2. That he shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer and;*
- 3. That he shall not leave India without previous permission of the Court.”*

In compliance of the afore-said order, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner has joined the investigation and undertakes to join further investigation as and when called upon to do so by the Investigating Agency. He further states that petitioner has already undertaken to repay the entire amount of ₹66,00,000/- including the share of his partner namely Satvir Kumar within two months from 29.01.2015 and the petitioner shall abide by the undertaking in its letter and spirit.

Learned State counsel on instructions from Arvinder Pal Singh, Head Constable states that the petitioner has joined the investigation however, recovery of the amount is still to be made.

Since the petitioner has already undertaken to repay the entire amount, therefore nothing is to be recovered as on date.

For the reasons afore-said order dated 29.01.2015 is made absolute.

Petitions stands disposed of.
