RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.398 dated 15.7.2014 registered under Sections 304-B, 302 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station Assandh, District Karnal.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than one year. Prosecution evidence is still going on and conclusion of the trial will take some time. Petitioner is the mother-in-law of the deceased and had no role to play in the unfortunate incident. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from SI Rajinder Kumar, Police Station Assandh, submits that petitioner has actively participated in the commission of offence. The unnatural death took place within one year of the marriage. He further submits that since the prosecution evidence is going to be closed in the near future, she is not entitled for bail pending trial, at this stage.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties at considerable length, after careful perusal of the record of the case and giving thoughtful consideration to the contentions raised, this Court is of the considered opinion that petitioner being the mother-in-law and allegations against her being general in nature, she has been found entitled for bail pending trial. Further, since prosecution evidence is still going on, conclusion of the trial will take some time.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits of the case, at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, the instant petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on her furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
