ANITA CHAUDHRY , J(ORAL)

Meenakshi, the petitioner has brought the instant petition seeking protection to her life and liberty and of her husband and in-laws. She is claimed to have married with one Bhagri against the wishes of her parents i.e. respondents No.4 to 6.

Learned counsel submits that the petitioner has yet to make a statement in the criminal case registered against her husband and in-laws and require protection at the time her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. would be recorded. He also requests that protection may be provided to the petitioner upto the parking.

Learned State counsel has pointed out that the case is still under investigation.

The petition is disposed of with a direction to respondents No.2 and 3 to give advance intimation to the petitioner about the date and time of her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. They shall ensure that protection is provided to the petitioner from the place of her residence, at the time when her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. is recorded in the Court till she returns to her residence.

Security Incharge of this Court will provide protection to the petitioner upto the High Court parking.
