RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.339 dated 4.11.2014 under Sections 420, 406, 120-B IPC registered at Police Station City Rewari, Distt. Rewari.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is inside the jail for the last about more than 6 months. He further submits that since the prosecution evidence is still going on, conclusion of trial will take some time. The offences alleged against the petitioner are triable by the Magistrate. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, as well as learned counsel for the complainant opposed the present petition, contending that since the petitioner has misappropriated the huge amount, he is not entitled for bail pending trial. They pray for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and after careful perusal of the record of the case, this court is of the considered opinion that since the offences are triable by the Magistrate and prosecution evidence is still going on, conclusion of trial will take some time.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on the merits of the case, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, instant petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
