M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

This is husband's petition for the grant of pre-arrest bail. During the pendency of this petition, a matrimonial dispute between the complainant Pooja Gulati and the petitioner seems to have been amicably resolved before the Mediation Centre of Supreme Court vide settlement dated 27.4.2015 wherein the parties seem to have agreed to part company on payment of lump sum amount to the complainant-wife as permanent alimony.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that the amount settled in the compromise has already been paid and decree of divorce has also been granted.

Counsel for the complainant has got no instructions in this context from her client.

In view of above circumstances, this petition is allowed. It is ordered that in case of arrest of the petitioner, he shall be released on bail to the satisfaction of the arresting officer subject to the conditions that he will join investigation as and when required and will fulfil the terms of the compromise without prejudice to the rights of the complainant to approach this Court again in case the terms are not finally complied with.
