Amandeep Singh

... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Kartik Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Anmol Grewal, AAG, Punjab.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.75 dated 18.06.2014 under Sections 395, 411 IPC, registered at Police Station Bullowal, District Hoshiarpur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than one year. He further places reliance on the statement of PW2 Surinder Singh-complainant who has not supported the prosecution version. Learned counsel for the petitioner would next contend that in such a situation, petitioner is entitled for bail pending trial. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State submits that the amount of Rs.1.20 lacs, besides one black coloured bag and one cheque book as well as one passbook, was recovered from the petitioner, which shows his direct involvement in the commission of crime. The car which was used in the commission of crime also belongs to the petitioner. She further submits that out of total 12 PWs, 05 have been given up and 03 have been examined. Next date of hearing before the learned trial Court is 16.09.2015. She prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties at considerable length, after careful perusal of the record of the case and giving thoughtful consideration to the contentions raised, this Court is of the considered opinion that in the given facts and circumstances of the case, petitioner has not been found entitled for bail pending trial. It is so said because recoveries have been effected from the petitioner. The car which was used in the commission of crime also belonged to the petitioner. Further, keeping in view the stage of trial, petitioner is not entitled for bail pending trial.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, no case for bail pending trial is made out.

Dismissed.
