CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Manoj Sharma, Advocate for
Mr. Ashish Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., seeking direction to the official respondents for providing protection to his life, liberty and property at the hands of private respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that when the genuine grievance of the petitioner was not being redressed, he finally approached the Commissioner of Police, Amritsar City-respondent No.2 by way of self-contained representation dated 25.6.2015 (Annexure P-1), but the same is also pending decision. He further submits that the petitioner will be satisfied in case respondent No.2 is directed to consider and decide his representation, within a reasonable time.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and without expressing any opinion on the merits of case, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, the Commissioner of Police, Amritsar City-respondent No.2, is directed to look into the matter personally, consider the grievance of the petitioner including threat perception raised in his representation dated 25.6.2015 (Annexure P-1) and decide the same at an early date, by passing an effective order thereon, strictly in accordance with law but in any case within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

With the above-said observations made and directions issued, the present petition stands disposed of.
