AT CHANDIGARH

Criminal Misc.No.M-28476 of 2015

Date of Decision: August 25, 2015

Kuldeep & Ors.

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE NARESH KUMAR SANGHI

Present: Mr.Munish Mittal, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Naresh Kumar Sanghi, J.(Oral)

Prayer in this petition, filed under Section 438, Cr.P.C., is for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, Kuldeep and Deepak, who have been booked for having committed the offences punishable under Sections 148, 323, 325, 326, 452 and 506 read with Section 149, IPC, in a case arising out of FIR No.660, dated 23.09.2014, registered at Police Station, City Jagadhri, District Yamuna Nagar.

Learned counsel contends that when the initial incident of beating had taken place at the house of the injured at that time the petitioners were not present however, in the subsequent incident which had taken place in the hospital though the names of the petitioners are mentioned in the array of the accused yet no specific part has been attributed to them.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners and with his able assistance gone through the material available on record.

The allegations against the petitioners and their co-accused are that on 22.09.2014 at about 4:00 p.m when Baby and Munish (injured) were present at their house then the co-accused of the petitioners went there and caused injuries to both of them. Baby was admitted in the hospital. On the next day i.e. 23.09.2014, the petitioners along with their co-accused went to the hospital armed with swords, sticks and sharp-edged weapons and caused injuries to Baby. She had received grievous injuries by blunt and sharp-edged weapons.

No ground is made out for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Dismissed.
