This petition has been filed for quashing of FIR No.31, dated 26.01.2013, registered under Sections 279/304 of the IPC, at Police Station Meham, District Rohtak.

Allegations were that the father of the complainant was hit from behind by a red colour car while he was cycling and consequently died. It was further alleged that the front number plate of the car also fell down.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that the petitioner has been wrongly implicated only for the purpose of getting compensation because his car is silver coloured. He has further argued that there are some other factors which, as per him, go on to show that the petitioner has been falsely implicated.

Counsel for the respondent, on the other hand, has argued that the factors mentioned by counsel for the petitioner may ultimately end up in acquittal but as of now merely because the colour of the car has been wrongly mentioned, the FIR cannot be quashed, especially when the number plate recovered from the spot has the same number as the car of the petitioner.

I am in agreement with counsel for the respondent.
Consequently, this petition is dismissed.
