

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M No. 28818 of 2015 (O&M)
Date of decision: 01.09.2015

Angrej Singh @ Rana

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mr. R.S. Sekhon, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Luvinder Sofat, AAG, Punjab assisted by ASI Suresh Kumar.

Jitendra Chauhan, J. (Oral)

By filing the present petition under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the petitioner has sought regular bail in FIR No. 59 dated 10.05.2015, registered under Section 22 of NDPS Act, at Police Station Mamdot, District Ferozepur.

The sole argument raised for grant of regular bail in the present petition is that in the absence of FSL report, the challan has been filed.

On the other hand, the learned State counsel submits that the FSL report will be furnished within two weeks.

Heard.

Keeping in view the facts that the petitioner is a convict under NDPS case and there is another FIR pending against him, the quantity in the present case is commercial one, therefore, no case for grant of regular bail is made out. In Narinder Kumar Amir Vs. CBI, 2015 (1) RAJ 322 (SC), it has been held that if all the relevant documents are not filed with the challan by the police, the accused is not entitled to default bail.

Dismissed.

However, in case the FSL report is not submitted within three weeks from today, the petitioner is granted liberty to revive the present petition.
