CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NAVITA SINGH

Mr. M.S. Basra, Advocate, for respondent No. 2.

NAVITA SINGH, J.

This is a petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for quashing of FIR No. 88 dated 19.07.2013, under Sections 406, 420, 498-A and 506 of the Indian Penal Code, Police Station City Gurdaspur (Annexure P-1) and all other consequential proceedings arising there-from, on the basis of compromise.

It is submitted that the divorce has already happened and the marriage between petitioner – Jasmeet Singh Sandhu and respondent No. 2 – Amandeep Kaur stands dissolved.

Jasmeet Singh Sandhu was, however, declared proclaimed offender.

Counsel for the petitioners submits that the said petitioner had gone out of India before the FIR was registered against him.

Counsel for respondent No. 2 submits that the said respondent, who was the complainant, has to get money from the petitioners to the tune of Rs.18,00,000/-, which was agreed to be paid at the time of decision of divorce petition. The money is ready with the petitioners and counsel for respondent No. 2 submits that despite the fact that petitioner – Jasmeet Singh Sandhu was declared proclaimed offender, he has no objection if the compromise is carried into action.

Respondent No. 2 – Amandeep Kaur, who is present in Court, stated the above said facts and that she is in dire need of money and now she has nothing to do whether Jasmeet Singh Sandhu will come or will not come to India.

Demand draft No. 003103 dated 24.03.2015 for Rs.18,00,000/- in favour of Amandeep Kaur – respondent No. 2 has been handed over by counsel for the petitioners to Amandeep Kaur – respondent No. 2, who accepted the same. Photocopy of the demand draft is filed, which is taken on record.

In compliance with the order dated 19.08.2014 passed by this Court, report is received from Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gurdaspur, to the effect that from the statements of the parties, it appeared that the parties have effected compromise with each other. It is also reported that accused Jasmeet Singh was declared proclaimed offender.

Learned counsel for the parties have stated at the bar that the matter has been compromised between the parties. Moreover, the matter involved is personal in nature.

So, in view of the above circumstances and the authority reported as 'Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and others, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052', the petition is allowed and the above-said FIR and the proceedings arising there-from are hereby quashed.

Disposed of.
