CRM allowed. Affidavit of respondent No.2 along with Annexures R-1 to R-3 taken on record.

CRM-M No. 2896 of 2015

This is a petition for regular bail filed in complaint case bearing
No. 03/3.1.2009 titled as Ranvir Singh versus Harjinder Singh alias Biru and others, under sections 120-B, 148, 307, 326, 325, 324, 323, 149 IPC and under Sections 3 and 4 of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes(Prevention of Atrocities)Act, 1989 pending in the Court of JMIC, Hoshiarpur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that the injury attributed to the petitioner is an abrasion on the left upper arm. Learned counsel for the complainant has argued that this injury was caused by a sharp edged weapon but has not been able to deny that in the MLR it has been reflected that this is an abrasion. Learned counsel for the complainant has further argued that in this case the horrific nature of the attack disentitles the petitioner from bail while learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that once the injury attributed to the petitioner is a simple injury and he has been in custody for one month, this Court should grant him bail because otherwise his detention would become punitive.

In my considered opinion in view of the above mentioned facts it would not be appropriate to deny bail to the petitioner. Let him be released on bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

Petition stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the Criminal Misc.Application, if any also stands disposed of.
