1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporter or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Rekha Mittal, J.

Through the present petition filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the petitioner has prayed for quashing of FIR No. 192 dated 29.10.2013 for offence punishable under Sections 279, 337 and 338 of the Indian Penal Code registered in Police Station Moga City, District Moga and proceedings emanating therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 05.08.2014 (Annexure P-2) arrived at between the parties.

Vide order dated 27.08.2014, the parties were directed to appear before the trial Court to get their statements recorded with regard to genuineness of compromise.

Pursuant thereto, a report has been submitted by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Moga wherein it has been reported that statements of the parties have been recorded and that they have voluntarily compromised the matter.

Counsel for the State does not dispute genuineness of the compromise in view of the report of trial Court.

A perusal of allegations in the FIR reveals that the present case squarely falls in that category of cases which can be quashed by the High Court, in exercise of its inherent power under Section 482 of the Code. Keeping in view the authoritative enunciation of law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in 'Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another', 2012 (4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 543 and in the light of facts and circumstances of the present case, this Court is of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings would amount to abuse of process of law and it is expedient in the interest of justice that criminal proceedings are put to an end.

In this view of the matter, the petition is allowed and FIR No. 192 dated 29.10.2013 for offence punishable under Sections 279, 337 and 338 of the Indian Penal Code registered in Police Station Moga City, District Moga and proceedings emanating therefrom stand quashed qua the petitioner.
