... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab and anr.

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Jaswinder Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. K.D. Sachdeva, Addl. AG, Punjab.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.78 dated 01.06.2015 under Sections 328, 381, 120-B IPC, registered at Police Station PAU Ludhiana, District Ludhiana.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than four months. Charge is yet to be framed and conclusion of trial will take long time. No recovery has been effected from the petitioner except a cheque. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from SI Karnail Singh, Police Station PAU Ludhiana, submits that allegations against the petitioner are direct and serious, because of which he is not entitled for bail pending trial, at this stage. He prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and after careful perusal of the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that since the trial is at the initial stage and petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than four months, he has been found entitled for bail pending trial. No recovery except that of a cheque has been effected from the petitioner.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, instant petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
