MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioner had approached this Court alleging threat to her life and liberty. She is a widow and alleges that her parents in law are depriving her of the rightful claim.

In the considered view of this Court, the petitioner would have remedies in law to assert her right to the assets of her husband. In so far as the threat to her life is concerned, the official respondents are empowered to evaluate the threat perception. Consequently, the matter is left to the Senior Superintendent of Police concerned in so far as this aspect is concerned to evaluate the threat perception of the petitioner and her grievance in the representation and he may take appropriate steps in case, the situation so warrants.
