Reply by way of affidavit dated 17.12.2015 of the Superintendent of Police, Investigation, Ferozepur, on behalf of respondents No. 1 to 3, filed in the Court today, is taken on record and copy thereof has been supplied to the learned counsel for the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the State submits that since the matter has been amicably settled between the parties, present petition has been rendered infructuous and the may be disposed of, as such.

Faced with the above, learned counsel for the petitioners also fairly states that let the present petition be disposed of in view of the statement made by learned counsel for the State but liberty may be granted to the petitioners to pursue their other remedies, in accordance with law, if necessity arises.

In view of the above statements made by learned counsel for the parties, present petition stands disposed of as having been rendered infructuous, however, with liberty as prayed for.
