Decided on: September 17, 2015.

Monu Bhalla

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Ashok Giri, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Harpreet Kaur Athwal, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. Sarju Puri, Advocate, for the complainant.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner along with his family members had allegedly assaulted complainant Bal Krishan and his wife.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that injury attracting offence under Section 308 IPC is attributed to the brother of the petitioner.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and gone through the record.

The petitioner is attributed a 'kahi' blow on the right arm elbow of wife of the complainant who is more than 76 years of age.

I have considered the facts and circumstances of the case.

No doubt, the petitioner has not been attributed any grievous injury but in view of the fact that as the petitioner shared common intention with other accused and assaulted the next door neighbours, who happen to be senior citizen and the injured remained hospitalized for more than a period of one month.

No ground is made out to grant the concession of pre-arrest bail to the petitioner.

Dismissed.

However, nothing said in this order will prejudice the right of the petitioner to seek concession of regular bail.
