

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-30526 of 2014

Date of Decision: 04.02.2015

Jaipal Singh

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. J.S.Hooda, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. M.S. Sidhu, Addl. A.G., Haryana.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner claims that accused Anju has not been arrested despite application for pre-arrest bail having been dismissed by the High Court as the investigating agency is colluding with the said accused.

In the reply filed, it has been informed that Anju accused has been arrested and she is in judicial custody at this stage.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there are certain other persons who are named in the suicide note but no action has been taken.

The challan has already been presented and six witnesses have also been examined.

Perusal of the petition indicates that the only direction which was sought for in the present case was to arrest the accused persons promptly. Since the main accused have been arrested and facing trial in custody, no further direction is warranted.

Petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to avail any other legal remedy i.e. by filing of private complaint against the persons whom he suspects or to avail the remedy under Section 319 Cr.P.C at opportune time.
