

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Criminal Misc.No.M-30706 of 2015 (O&M)
Date of decision: 16th October, 2015

Manpreet Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. K.S.Brar, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Simsi Dhir Malhotra, DAG, Punjab,
for the respondent(s)-State.

Mr. Amarjit Singh Ahluwalia, Advocate, for the complainant.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

Petitioner has preferred the instant petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C., seeking anticipatory bail in case FIR No.71 dated 18.10.2014, registered at Police Station Nandgarh, District Bathinda, under Section(s) 306/34 IPC.

Notice of motion was issued.

Learned State counsel as well as learned counsel for complainant appeared and contested the instant petition.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned State counsel as well as learned counsel for complainant and have gone through the record.

From the record, this Court finds that though, the petitioner was named in the FIR but during investigation, he was found innocent. Now he has been summoned by the learned trial Court on the application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. The petitioner is not required for investigation or interrogation purposes nor anything is to be recovered from him as he has been summoned on the application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. and the trial is going on before the learned trial Court and he has already been released on interim bail in compliance of order dated 10.09.2015, passed by this Court. No useful purpose will be served by sending the petitioner to custody.

Therefore, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case and without discussing the facts of the case in minute details and without expressing any opinion on the merit of the case, the present petition is accepted and the order dated 10.09.2015, passed by this Court, granting interim bail to the petitioner is made absolute.
