RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.562 dated 21.05.2015 under Section 304 IPC, registered at Police Station Chandni Bagh, District Panipat.

Learned counsel for the petitioner refers to the affidavits of complainant Dinesh as well as eye-witness Amar Bahadur at page 13 to 16 of the paper book, to contend that the incident took place at the spur of moment without there being any intention. Finally, the parties have settled the matter amicably. He prays for allowing the present petition.

Supporting the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for the complainant also verifies the factum of an amicable settlement. Learned counsel for the State also fairly states that since the matter seems to have been amicably settled, let an appropriate order be passed.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, instant petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
