3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest ?

Ajay Tewari, J (Oral)

The petitioner seeks grant of regular bail in case FIR No.749, dated 12.6.2013, registered under Section 15 of the NDPS Act and Section 420 of the IPC, at Police Station City Hisar, District Hisar.

Medical report of the petitioner has been filed, in terms of the last order dated 28.9.2015 and the same is taken on record as Mark A. Copy has been supplied.

As per the medical report, it is clear that the petitioner is suffering from serious though non life threatening problems.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that the petitioner has now been in custody since July 2014, he was not arrested at the spot, and only three witnesses have been examined and 15 still remain. Apart from this, the petitioner wants to consult specialist doctors and he is ready to give heavy surety.

Learned DAG Haryana, on instructions from ASI Karanbir Singh, has accepted these factual assertions.

Keeping in view the entire matrix, and without commenting upon the merits of the case, as well as keeping in view the period of custody already suffered by the petitioner, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of regular bail to the petitioner. Bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court. As undertaken by counsel for the petitioner, the trial Court shall ensure that heavy surety is furnished by the petitioner to its satisfaction. Petition stands disposed of.
