Ajay Tewari, J (Oral)

The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.258, dated 24.8.2015, registered under Sections 323, 353, 186, 341, 427, 506, 147, 149 of the IPC, at Police Station Ellenabad, District Sirsa.

The allegations were that a team of DHBVNL had gone for checking electricity theft and when they tried to check the premises of the husband of the petitioner, they were beaten up.

On 24.9.2015, the following order was passed :-

“ Counsel for the petitioner has very fairly stated that even as per the FIR, the main accused is Surrender

Kumar her husband and he would surrender in the Court provided protection is given to the petitioner.

Learned DAG Haryana, as well as counsel for the complainant, have also fairly accepted this proposal.

Adjourned to 1.10.2015 on the statement made by counsel for the petitioner. Meanwhile, arrest of the petitioner shall remain stayed.”

Today, it is agreed that the named accused are in police custody.

In the circumstances, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Resultantly, this petition is allowed and it is directed that in the event of her arrest, the petitioner shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Investigating Officer to his satisfaction subject to the compliance of the provisions as contained in Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
