RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J

Petitioner seeks pre-arrest bail in FIR No.292 dated 8.11.2010 under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 506, 332, 353 IPC registered at Police Station Sector 11, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been regularly appearing before the learned trial court. However, since he was not keeping good health for quite some time, he could not appear on some of the dates before the learned trial court. He further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to surrender before the learned trial court, who may be directed to consider all the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, which will be brought to the notice of the learned trial court, while considering his application for bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, instant petition is disposed of, with a direction to the learned trial court that if the petitioner surrenders before it, within a period of one week from today, all the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case brought to the notice of the learned trial court, at the instance of the petitioner, shall be taken into consideration, while passing the appropriate order on his bail application, as early as possible and preferably on the same day.

Disposed of, accordingly.
