RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.27 dated 22.02.2014 under Sections 193, 420, 465, 467, 471, 120-B IPC, registered at Police Station Uklana, District Hisar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset, fairly states that it is the second petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C., first having been withdrawn vide order dated 22.07.2015 because at that time, the matter was under investigation. He submits that now investigation is complete and challan has been presented. Petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than four months. Learned counsel for the petitioner also submits that since the trial is yet to start, conclusion thereof will take some time. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from SI Chattarpal Singh, Police Station Uklana, Hisar, submits that other co-accused of the petitioner are at large. Petitioner was responsible for forging the signatures of Savitri etc. to prolong his illegal possession. He prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and after careful perusal of the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that in the totality of facts and circumstances of the case, petitioner has been found entitled for bail pending trial. It is so said because the investigation is already over and the report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. has already been presented. Petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than four months. Since the prosecution evidence is yet to start, conclusion of trial will take time.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, instant petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
