RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.235 dated 4.5.2015 registered under Sections 186, 332, 353 and 436 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station Sadar, Dadri, District Bhiwani.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. There was no occasion for the petitioner to indulge in such kind of activity, which has been alleged against him. Petitioner is inside the jail for the last about five months. He further submits that since prosecution evidence is still going on, conclusion of the trial will take some time. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from ASI Satbir Singh, Police Station Sadar, Dadri, District Bhiwani, submits that allegations are serious and direct against the petitioner. Since there is no delay in the trial, it will conclude in near future. He prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and after careful perusal of the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that in the peculiar fact situation of the present case, petitioner has been found entitled for bail pending trial. It is so said because petitioner is inside the jail for the last about five months. Prosecution evidence is still going on and conclusion of trial will take some time. The allegations are not serious in nature.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, the instant petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
