KULDIP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Mr. Ajay Pal Singh Rehan, Advocate, has put in appearance of his own and filed power of attorney on behalf of the injured/complainant.

The allegations are that on 23.10.2014, at about 9:30 PM, when injured/complainant Malook Chand was going for a walk, then Sabha armed with rod, Kaddu armed with rod and Gunga alias Sonu (present petitioner) were present and they were making noise. Sabha gave two iron rod blows on the head of the injured Malook Chand. Gunga @ Sonu gave dang blow on back and Kaddu gave dang blow on the chest of the Malook Chand (injured/complainant). The head injury on the person of injured Malook Chand was found to be dangerous to life.

Learned counsel for the injured/complainant has stated that the injured is still under treatment.

Keeping in view the manner in which the injuries were given and the fact that aid of Section 34 IPC can be taken to fix the vicarious liabilities of all the accused, the individual injury is immaterial. Therefore, there is no ground to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Hence, dismissed.
