1. Whether Reporters of Local Newspapers may be allowed to see the judgment ?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not ?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest ?

Ajay Tewari, J (Oral)

The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No115, dated 16.7.2015, registered under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 506, 307 of the IPC, at Police Station Sector 3, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that there is no allegation that the petitioner caused any injury or had even any altercation with the person who was injured, and that the accused who had caused the knife blow is in custody. As per him, this was a sudden fight which had taken place during students elections.

These facts have been accepted by counsel for the respondent on instructions from SI Sewak Singh.

In these circumstances, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The petitioner is directed to appear before the Investigating Officer on 8.10.2015 or on any other day on which the Investigating Officer requires his presence, and in the event of his arrest, the petitioner shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Investigating Officer to his satisfaction subject to the compliance of the provisions as contained in Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

The petition stands disposed of.
