REKHA MITTAL, J.

The petitioners have prayed for quashing of FIR No.207 dated 8.7.2013 for offence under Sections 406, 498-A read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code (in short "IPC") registered at Police Station, City Ferozepur, District Ferozepur on the basis of compromise.

The parties were directed to appear before the trial court/Illaq Magistrate to get their statements recorded with regard to genuineness of compromise.

A report has been submitted by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ferozepur wherein it has been reported that statements of the petitioners and respondent No.2(complainant) have been recorded and statements made by the parties in the Court reveal that they have voluntarily entered into a compromise with an intention to live in peace and harmony.

Mr. Ankur Jain, AAG, Punjab has put in appearance on behalf of respondent No.1. He has not disputed correctness of assertions of the petitioners and the fact that the matter has been settled by way of compromise between the parties.

I have heard counsel for the parties and perused the case file.

There is nothing on record to doubt correctness of the compromise effected between the parties, whereby they have decided to settle their dispute with an intention to live in peace and harmony. The present case falls in the category of cases, which can be allowed to be settled by way of compromise, in view of the decision of Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 543.

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the petition is allowed and FIR No.207 dated 8.7.2013 for offence under Sections 406, 498-A read with Section 34 IPC registered at Police Station, City Ferozepur, District Ferozepur and proceedings emanating therefrom are ordered to be quashed, qua the petitioners.
