

HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-32911 of 2015

Date of decision:24.9.2015

Pooja Sharma and another

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Sarvesh Kumar Gupta, Advocate for the petitioners.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Both the petitioners are present in the Court and identified by their counsel.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that both the petitioners are major and they have married each other of their own free will but against the wishes of private respondents No. 4 and 5. There is no definite proof of age of petitioner No.2 available on the record, except his own affidavit Annexure P-2. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that apprehending danger to their life and liberty at the hands of private respondents No. 4 and 5, petitioners moved a representation dated 22.9.2015 (Annexure P-5) before the Commissioner of Police, Ludhana, but no action thereon has been taken so far.

In view of the non-availability of even a prima facie proof of the age of petitioner No.2, since Commissioner of Police, Ludhaina, has not been made party, petitioners are directed to appear before the Senior Superintendent of Police, Ludhiana-respondent No.2, who shall get the age of petitioner No.2 verified and thereafter, consider the threat perception raised by the petitioners, vide their representation dated 22.9.2015 (Annexure P-5), dispassionately and expeditiously, passing an appropriate order, as warranted by law, so as to ensure that no harm is caused to the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of private respondents No.4 and 5.

The Senior Superintendent of Police, Ludhiana-respondent No.2, who shall get the age of petitioner No.2 shall also be at liberty to pass the order granting protection to the petitioners even during the pendency of the enquiry regarding the verification of age of the petitioners, in case he feels satisfied that petitioners are facing imminent danger to their life and liberty at the hands of private respondents.

However, lest this order is misunderstood, it is clarified that this order shall not mean that the petitioners had reached the age of marriage, as required by the law applicable to them, at the time of their marriage or that their marriage is legal as per the relevant provisions of law. It is so said because neither it is the issue involved in the present petition nor this Court is putting its seal of approval on the validity of marriage of the petitioners. In fact, it is the domain of the matrimonial Court of competent jurisdiction, to decide the validity of the marriage and that too on the basis of the pleadings taken and the evidence led by the parties in the given circumstances of each case.

It is also made clear that this order shall not entitle the petitioners for any protection against their arrest or continuance of any criminal proceedings, if they are found involved in the commission of any cognizable offence. In case the petitioners had committed any offence, the law will take its own course.

With the above-said observations made and directions issued, the present petition stands disposed of.
