AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

On 28.09.2015 the following order was passed:-

"The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C for quashing of FIR No.105 dated 06.05.2007 under Sections 450/324/323/148/149/427 of the Indian Penal Code registered at Police Station Tanda, District Hoshiarpur and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise effected between the parties, which is annexed as Annexure P-2 with the petition.

Notice of motion.

At the asking of the Court, Mr. Ashish Sanghi, DAG, Punjab, who is present in Court, accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.1. Mr. Vishal Munjal, Advocate has appeared on behalf of respondent No.2.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to supply a copy of the petition to learned counsel for the respondents, during the course of the day.

Adjourned to 14.12.2015.

In the meantime, the parties are directed to be present before the trial Court/Illaqua Magistrate on 28.10.2015 or on any other date convenient to the Court for recording their statements with regard to compromise. The Court is directed to record the statements of both the parties to its satisfaction to know its genuineness that the statements are not the result of any pressure or coercion in any manner. The Court is further directed to send report along with the statements of the parties with regard to validity or otherwise of the compromise effected between the parties and also intimate whether any criminal case is pending against either of the parties or not before the next date of hearing.”

Thereafter, the report of the Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Dasuya dated 04.12.2015 has been received whereby he has mentioned that the aforesaid parties have appeared before him and have attested to the fact that a compromise has indeed taken place and that the compromise has been executed voluntarily and without any pressure.

Learned Deputy Advocate General has also accepted this fact.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another reported as 2012(4) RCR(Criminal) 543 has discussed in detail the inherent powers of High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint where the parties have entered into compromise except the cases which involve offences such as murder, rape dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have serious impact on society.

In view of the above judicial pronouncement, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings between the parties would be an abuse of the process of law and the present compromise is for their benefit and will bring peace and harmony between them.

Consequently, this petition is allowed and the above said FIR and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua petitioner.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
