IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Crl. Misc. No. 337-M of 2015

Date of Decision: 12.01.2015.

Inderjeet ..... PETITIONER

Versus

State of Haryana

..... RESPONDENT

CORAM:- HON'BLE MRS.JUSTICE LISA GILL

Present: Ms. Vandana Sharma, Advocate, for the petitioner.

LISA GILL, J.(Oral)

Petitioner prays for anticipatory bail in FIR No.717 dated 20.10.2014 , under Sections 148, 149, 323, 342, 452, 427, 325, 379 and 506, IPC, registered at Police Station City, Ballabgrah, District Faridabad.

Earlier application for bail filed by the petitioner i.e. CRM No. M 38418 of 2014 had been dismissed as withdrawn on 14.11.2014.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that thereafter the complainant Pappi Devi wife of Dhara Singh has settled the matter with one of the co-accused Shiv Kumar, therefore, the petitioner is entitled to the concession of anticipatory bail.

As per the allegations in the FIR lodged on the statement of Pappi Devi, the petitioner along with others had trespassed, firstly, in the house of Smt. Palli and gave slaps and fists blows to one Vijay. All the accused thereafter came to her house and extended threat to her brother and all the other family members. The complainant did not open the door and they returned together. Information of this incident has been given to the police telephonically on 20.10.2014.

The petitioner along with co-accused duly armed with lathi, danda, saria, and sword trespassed into the complainant residence by breaking open the door. They beat the complainant, her son Boby, Monu son of her brother Vijay, Mahender, Bablu and her aunt Shanti. They also fired from a country made pistol though no injury was caused to any one. There are allegations of looting of household articles including cash and jewellery.

Keeping in view the grave allegations against the petitioner, I do not find it appropriate to extend the benefit of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in the second application filed by the petitioner.

Dismissed.
