Pawan Kumari Suri Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: None for the petitioners.

Mr. Amit Dhawan, Advocate for respondent.

M.M.S. BEDI, J.(Oral)

This is a petition under Section 482 filed by the petitioners challenging the order dated 19.09.2013 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Jalandhar allowing the revision petition of the respondent and set aside the order dated 23.07.2012 passed by the Judicial Magistrate First Class, Jalandhar ordering the clubbing of four complaints under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

No one has put in appearance on behalf of the petitioners, but the counsel for respondent informs that the petitioners have been declared proclaimed offenders in all the four complaints under Section 138 of the N.I. Act and that the proceeding under Section 299 Cr.P.C have been taken.

In view of the petitioners being proclaimed offenders and proceedings under Section 299 Cr.P.C having been ordered, no further direction can be issued in the present case for clubbing of the four complaints filed by the same complainant against the petitioners. However, it is observed that at any stage after the petitioners choose to face the proceedings in custody or on bail, the trial Judge shall ensure that all the complaints being against the same persons, may be taken up simultaneously by fixing one date of hearing. It will not be necessary for clubbing all the four complaints the substance to be produced by the respondent-complainant arising out of the different transactions.

Disposed of with the above observations.
